

The landowner bill of rights was prepared by SAKW with the assistance of Kansas watershed districts. The landowner bill of rights is for optional use. SAKW encourages watershed districts to modify the document to better meet their needs. SAKW suggests that any document such as this be reviewed by legal counsel prior to its use.